

AIMSS invites you to our seminar featuring our guest speaker:

Professor Ian Harris

“Optimising hip fracture care in Australia”

Prof. Ian Harris is a clinician and researcher based in Sydney. He is an orthopaedic surgeon with a clinical interest in trauma care where his practice is based at Liverpool Hospital in southwest Sydney. He is Professor of Orthopaedic Surgery at the South Western Sydney Clinical School of UNSW Sydney and is Honorary Professor at the School of Public Health, University of Sydney where his research is based at the Institute for Musculoskeletal Health.

Thursday 25th July 2019

1.30-2.30pm

(Join us from 1.00pm for a networking lunch)

Auditorium – Level 1

Western Centre for Health Research and Education (WCHRE)

176 Furlong Road, St. Albans, VIC

Enquiries: mark.gregory@unimelb.edu.au